1	Mother Teresa grew up in Skopje, Macedonia. Her parents	✓
2	were the shopkeepers and she led a comfortable life. However,	the
3	she often read books with stories about missionaries in India,
4	which she has found very interesting. She wanted to be a
5	missionary for herself, so, when she was still a teenager, she
6	became a nun and went to Calcutta.
7	There she taught them girls from rich families in a convent
8	school. Although she never did saw them, Mother Teresa
9	knew that the school was very near at some of the worst
10	slums. One night she heard an "inner voice" which told her
11	to stop her work much as a teacher and help the poor instead.
12	So, while she left the convent and began to live among the poor
13	in the slums. She walked barefoot and wore a white sari, yet
14	just as they did. She asked for help and was not being
15	disappointed. Many people sent money and presents. The
16	city let her to have an old house, and she began her work with
17	twelve other nuns. The people who came to her were every
18	usually very ill, or even dying, but she also looked after babies
19	who then had been left in the streets. In 1979, Mother Teresa
20	was awarded herself the Nobel Prize. She died in 1997.
